Jalan Sragen - Batu Jamus, Mojokerto 015/005, Kedawung, Sragen, Jawa Tengah

I am an accounting student who likes to learn new things. I have an Institutional Accounting and Finance Certification with a standard unit value of 87. My participation in multiple internships and courses has sharpened my skills, including programming, UI/UX, and website development since I'm a fast learner, hard worker, and able to work under pressure. I also attended several courses and certifications from various learning platforms. I dreamed of having higher branding and self-worth, with a passion for learning and always interested in new things. I am also able to work individually, and like to work on the jobdesk with a team.
